

Martha D. Lybrook

Young 4's Teacher

Birth place/date: Guadalajara, Mexico

Where you grew up: Guadalajara

Hobbies as a child: Arts and crafts, Drawing, Playing Hopscotch, Playing with friends, Pretending play, Sleepover at Grandma's house (and play all night)

Education/College/CDA: Instituto Nueva Galicia (Incarnate Word in Guadalajara, Mexico) Bachelors degree in Early Childhood, Bilingual CDA

Hobbies as an adult: Reading, Traveling, Hiking, Going out with friends, Spending time with my family, Scrapbooking, Movies

Time/years in childhood education: 18 years

Other/previous careers: Tutoring Spanish, Sunday School teacher

Family: My husband Richard, my daughter Jennifer (20) in college pursuing her Pharmacist degree, my son William (13) in 7th grade. We have been married for 22 years.

Why early childhood? I think it is very important to start teaching when they are small to start a good foundation. At this age they are funny, smart, silly, honest and I like that. Every day is different, and a new adventure.